

Join the biggest names in the construction and design industry at CIDCI to change business models to accelerate innovation with these groundbreaking opportunities:

The Forum, October 2021

Capitalizing on the sold-out success of the Forum, CIDCI hosts its fifth Forum in San Francisco in Fall 2021. Hear from innovators, futurists, academics, venture capitalists and disruptors, transforming the design and construction community.

Salon Series

Stimulate the innovation conversation at “invitation only” events with leading academics and visionaries.

The Innovation Lab, Spring, 2021

An immersive online, lab environment organized with leaders from UC Berkeley’s Haas School of Business, where leaders will acquire business tools and techniques to implement and accelerate change in the workplace. Inspire and retain creative staff in collaborative problem-solving with owners, technologists, attorneys, and the design and construction industry.

“CIDCI is a catalyst for innovation- to inspire and empower leaders to challenge the design and construction industry and accelerate change.”

Stuart Eckblad, FAIA, UCSF Health

“CIDCI is distinct among the groups in the design and construction industry - CIDCI is the platform to bring change to the industry.”

Rex Miller, Futurist & Author
